Penobscot County Whig Convention.
The Whigs of the several towns and plantations in the County of Penobscot have agreed to meet at the CITY HALL, in Bangor, on Wednesday, the first day of September, next, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, for the purpose of nominating delegates to the Maine State Convention, to be held at Portland, on the 10th inst., and to elect a delegate to the National Convention, to be held at New York, on the 15th inst.

Lisbon County Whig Convention.
This Convention assembled at Waterville, on the 19th inst., and the Bath Tribune represents it as the most harmonious and cheeringly successful which has been held in that county for a long time.

The following candidates for Senators were nominated—Eliza Clark, of Bath, Jeremiah Wheeler of Waterville, James Lowell of Lewiston, and Nathan A. Fairbank of Rockland.

The Convention passed highly complimentary and appropriate resolutions in favor of Wm. G. Crosby, Esq., for Governor, and of the County nominations. And among the resolutions was the following, one of which applied and rightfully sustained the course of the Maine delegation in the Baltimore Convention in voting on the 10th inst.

Resolved, That the Whigs of the County of Penobscot, in their capacity as a political party, do hereby express their warmest sympathy for the Maine delegation in their course at the Baltimore Convention, and do hereby declare that they will support the Maine delegation in their course at the National Convention, to be held at New York, on the 15th inst.

tending and knowledge that he would support the nomination of Gen. Scott. Right nobly and gallantly he labored to reduce his pledge, and he was eminently successful. Had he done otherwise he would have returned from Bangor a disgraced man. He was opposed even while in Baltimore of the disapproval of his course would have been the result of his political friends, but his duty was clear. George Evans is not the man to take any steps backward. Mr. Evans was present at the Lincoln Convention, and delivered an eloquent address.

We give the Whigs of the old County of Lincoln an opportunity to correct, this day, the political position now taken for the success of our time honored principles. If standing national platform of the Whigs of the old County, and a policy of administration consistent with and justified by it, we pledge the Whig party that we will never ground our arms, so long as the main democracy shall manifest a disposition to control the destinies of the country.

Resolved, That our government be instituted for the benefit of those who live under it, and we go for such a policy of administration as will develop the resources of the country, and put it in a position to defend its territory, to protect its people from habits of idleness, and to protect them in their labor and in their earnings, against rapacious competition from abroad and against taxation at home. Finally, we go for such an administration of the general government as will put it in a position to defend its territory, to protect its people from habits of idleness, and to protect them in their labor and in their earnings, against rapacious competition from abroad and against taxation at home.

Resolved, That the administration of Millard Fillmore be heartily approved. (This was unanimously and with great enthusiasm approved by the Whigs of the County, and was held up as an example of what Whig men and Whig means, and contained the same good and patriotic heart, on an important occasion, we pledge our unanimous, fervent and cordial support of the nomination of Gen. Winfield Scott for President of the United States, and of Wm. A. Graham for Vice President of the same.

Resolved, That the Whigs of the County do hereby approve of the course of our delegates at the Baltimore Convention, in voting for the nomination of Winfield Scott, as President of the United States, and of Wm. A. Graham, as Vice President of the same. In so doing they have shown the wisdom of the Whigs of Maine, and as we believe of the Whigs of the whole State, we approve of the course of our delegates at the Baltimore Convention, in voting for the nomination of Winfield Scott, as President of the United States, and of Wm. A. Graham, as Vice President of the same.

fruit raising and who has had the longest experience in fruit matters and is the best posted up of any man in the city. Samuel L. Loring, of Bangor, where may be found, probably the best specimen of the Washington plum tree in the State. Abner R. Kellowell's garden on Broadway—his garden of Frederick Hobbs of Philip H. Coombe and the garden of Nursery of Nathaniel Harlow Esq. These are a few of the fruit gardens which readily occur to us as those we have visited and which afford great satisfaction. There are many others but these will give a good idea of the success of planting in our city.

Late and Important from Mexico.
By an arrival at New Orleans on the 14th, dates have been received from Vera Cruz to the 14th inst., and from the Capital to the 14th of July. These represent the country to be in a sad condition. An insurrection was raging at Matamoros and vicinity, the Indians were making depredations in Chihuahua, and elsewhere; robbers were boldly committed on the highways, coaches and couriers being stopped and robbed; and the Government was well nigh powerless for its own protection or the guardianship of its citizens. In the meantime the Government was receiving proposals for opening the route across the Isthmus of Tehuantepec, which were to be submitted in sealed and kept secret until the 15th of August, when they are to be opened and determined on.

There was a rumor at the capital that a revolution had been proclaimed in Tampico, and that the insurgents demanded a reform in the tariff. The Corps of artillery which was in Queretaro marched for Tampico on the 14th inst., taking four pieces of artillery. The Signal of the 14th inst. says that a band of 200 Mexicans and Americans were at the Rio Bravo, on the right bank of the Rio Bravo, preparing to invade the State of New Leon.

Anniversary.
The anniversary exercises of the Bangor Theological Institution will take place at the Hammond Street Church, this day, commencing this morning at the Hammond Street Church. These exercises are generally of a highly interesting character, and every year, since when Bangor was a small village, this anniversary was the great occasion, on which every one old and young attended, dressed in their best. It was the great event that drew visitors to our town.

Well, times have changed, and the community is too intensely absorbed in business to be interested generally by the recollection of these anniversary exercises, but still they are worthy of regard and they never fail to secure large and attentive audiences.

Second Congressional District Nomination.
At the second convention held at Auburn, on the 20th, in consequence of the declaration of Marshall Cran, Esq., in order to secure greater unanimity, Charles V. Gilman, Esq., of Bangor, was nominated as the Whig candidate for Congress. It is hoped now that the Whig ticket, which will now make an earnest and united effort to elect their candidate. By this burning all differences and laboring for the cause, they may learn the joys of success and thereby appreciate the benefits of yielding personal preferences to the general good.

The New York Tribune insists that the nomination of J. R. Hale, by the Penobscot Convention, was "contrived and bred" on purpose to give the vote of Ohio to Gen. Pierce, and that so far as the wire-pullers of the party are concerned the nomination means nothing else. And the Tribune seems to think "the shadowy trick" as it is called, will succeed; that Ohio may be lost to the Whigs; and that they will in consequence have a harder struggle to elect Gen. Scott than was anticipated.

The Georgia Union Convention decided that there was no way by which they could unite with the Scott Convention, and finally, on the 18th, the Committee recommended the nomination of Daniel Webster for President and Charles Sumner for Vice President. This recommendation was unanimously adopted by the Convention and an Executive Committee chosen.

As it is destroying the filth of the streets in the streets of Albany. They cover the street with a thin gum-like substance, which sticks like varnish, and is quite adhesive. In the night time this gum is poured and drops to the ground, making the walks under the trees look as if there had been a smart shower of rain.

The Springfield Republican says: "We don't know whether to smile or weep over the following picture of Jenny Lind, as given by a London correspondent of the Inverness Courier. Under the circumstances, the Hartford Times suggests the propriety of withholding the picture from the eyes of the public."

The Democratic party at Raleigh, North Carolina, claims that Reid, the Democratic candidate for Governor, is elected by about 5000 majority, and that the Democratic will have from two to four majorities on joint ballot in place of Mr. Mangum, Whig.

The Maine Farmer says a young hen will lay the first year about 150 eggs, the second year about 100, the third 100—dismissing every year as she grows older; and she should "go to pasture" after the fourth.

The store of Fisher & Esmond at Biddeford, Me., was broken open on Tuesday night, and robbed of a large quantity of silks and dress goods, valued at about $4,000. Some rare goods it is hoped, may lead to the detection of the thieves.

Piercy runs well—Dem. Paper.
Yes, for the smooth sea of private life he may do well enough; but on the stormy sea of politics his craft cannot breast the waves, and is bound to be run down by Whig vessels.

The old Prospect meeting house has been remodeled into an Academy, to be occupied by the Bangor Union School, an institution principally designed for the instruction of young men in navigation and mathematics.

Captain Cook, of the ship, Azil, at New York, from Turks Island 6th inst., reports the crop of Salt much larger and of better quality than has been gathered for many years.

The grape harvesters are very abundant in some of the towns in this county, and have destroyed the feed and eaten even the foliage of potatoes and turnips.

At Lewiston, Pa., the location for a factory of 20,000 spindles has been let on a large ground is soon to be broken for a mill of 14,000 spindles.

In Lunenburg, recently, Mr. Rufus Mervin was killed by being crushed under the wheels of a cart. He was one of the soldiers who invaded Canada in 1812.

The Rockland Gazette says the amount of time manufactured here (the present year) cannot be less than a million yards, worth the wheat about seventy cents per bushel.

It is reported that Hon. A. H. Stephens, of Georgia, one of the Whig impracticables, has announced his intention to support Scott and Graham.

The Whig Convention of the third Congressional District will be held at Rockland on Friday next.

CONGRESS.
WASHINGTON, August 24.
In the Senate. The River and Harbor bill was taken up. A great many amendments were offered and a number of them adopted. Without disposing of the matter the Senate adjourned.

House. The House took up the appropriation bill for the Post Office Department and passed it.

An incidental debate took place upon the duty of men, etc., between Messrs. Clayman and Stevens, of Mo., and Evans.

The Senate bill, confirming of Michigan certain lands for saline purposes was passed. Some previous bills were then considered, when, at half-past 3 o'clock, for want of a quorum, the House adjourned.

A young lady in the interior thinks of going to California to get married, for the reason that she has been told that in that country the men folk "rock the cradle."

Whig Ward Caucuses.
ON A TUESDAY EVENING, AUG. 25.
The Whigs in the several wards of the city of Bangor are invited to meet in their usual places of meeting, on FRIDAY EVENING, August 25, at half-past seven o'clock, for the purpose of choosing delegates to the Maine State Convention, to be held at Portland, on the 10th inst., and to elect a delegate to the National Convention, to be held at New York, on the 15th inst.

Purchasers of Furniture will find it to their advantage to call on H. S. Benson, No. 19 Central Street, just north of the corner of the Block, who carries a large stock of Furniture, Feather and Mattresses.

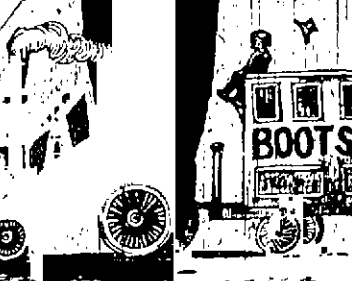

District No. 4.—Convention of the Free Democrats.
The Independent Democrats of the Congressional District No. 4, comprising Penobscot, Piscataquis and a part of York, are invited to meet at the Court House in Bangor, on Wednesday, the 1st day of September, next, at two o'clock A.
